

Stories Don't End (Capo: 2)

Dawes

Intro | C | % | % | % |

Verse 1 From the paper umbrellas in both of our drinks
To the shadows that walk without us
My account of the details is as clear as you'd think
Kept up by friends that still ask about us

Chorus 1 If our lives were a movie, if our lives were a book
It'd be longer than I'd recommend
'Cause if you're telling a story, at some point you stop
But stories don't end

Interlude | C | % | % | % |

Verse 2 The remains of a person, the habits of a ghost
You could still find in the places you used to Still reading off cue cards and raising a toast
To the stories I still tell about you

Pre-Chorus 1 But the plot line wanders and versions change
And I don't know where to quit

Chorus 2 If I tried to show every side of you through words of a song
I'd say a fraction of what I'd intend
'Cause if you're telling a story, at some point you stop
But stories don't end

Bridge The next time I see you and my conscience tells me
